Postgate Rally on Sunday 7th July we honour Blessed Nicholas Postgate who was one of the last priests to be martyred on the Knavemire in York, though he was by then already an old man. Earlier in his ministry he had worked in the Tadcaster area and then went on to be chaplain to the Constables at Burton Constable as he served the Catholics of our area. The last years of his life were spent going around his scattered flock on the Moors. The Mass this year will be celebrated at Ugthorpe (outside weather permitting) at 3.00p.m. Cardinal Arthur Roche, a Yorkshireman himself, will be the guest preacher. A coach will be going from Hull and if there is enough interest shown it will pick people up in Beverley. The coach will also be going to Whitby for fish and chips after the Mass.

Cost £10 Adults, £5 or donation for children.

Interested? Phone Therese on 07736 258 506 to book a seat.

Canon Grant will be away on retreat this week. Fr Don White from Rockhampton (Australia) will be coming to stay in the presbytery.
